
EARMA LEADERSHIP EVENT MARCH 26-27, 2019 BOLOGNA

“LEARN FROM THE BEST”

Purpose of the event: Being a leader in research is ultimately enabling the best researchers to flourish and grow. Therefore, both day-to-day challenges and more strategic considerations can stand in the way for reaching that target. With this Leadership in Research Event, we will target some of these issues and through keynote presentations and group work building on sharing of experience and best practice give effective ways to navigate in an environment of contradicting goals and directions. Engaging and networking with Research Leaders from around the world.

Participants: Managers and (aspiring) leaders from research, grants or sponsored programme offices at research organisations like universities, research institutions, research councils and funding agencies. The group will consist of up to 30 people including key leaders from Europe as well as the US, Australia, South Africa, China etc.

Professional development: Both newcomers and former participants will gain valuable experience either building on top of previous Leadership Events or establishing a foundation for becoming a professional Leader in Research. The program will be aligned with a future certification program in Leadership in Research.

Moderation team : This is a tailor made, one of a kind event developed by experienced EARMA leaders based on the experience of previous EARMA leadership events.

Jan Andersen (Technical University of Denmark, former EARMA Chair and board member)
John Donovan (Dublin Institute of Technology, former EARMA Chair)
Ragnar Lie (Norwegian Association of Higher Education Institutions, Chair of EARMA Professional Development and Recognition Committee)
Evelina Brännvall (Technical University of Luleaa, Chair of the Annual Conference Programming Committee)

Participation: A survey will be sent out in advance to adjust the program to expectations and topics raised by the participants.

NOTICE: This is a draft programme and subject to change. EARMA reserves the right to change the programme as it sees fit leading up to the event.
